CitiXsys Newsletter January 2008

A very Happy and Prosperous New Year to you all!
It was great meeting you at FKOM!

Executing our vision, performing with excellence and passion with a deeper commitment to ensuring CitiXsys exceeds the needs and expectations of our partners/customers is what 2008 is going to be about. This year will not be just about our products and services but the extra mile we will take to ensure that all touch points are delivering VALUE. Whether it is innovation, pricing, product performance, customer service, just to name a few. We have a clear vision marked by definite plans. Our marketing efforts are going to be more focused this year to address the micro-verticals our solutions cater to, along with various other initiatives all directed at improving your bottom-line - whether as a CitiXsys Partner or Customer.

In closing let me add, our continued growth has only been possible with your support and feedback and I look forward to delivering a greater return on this trust you have on us via our products and services in 2008.

I wish you all an outstanding year of personal and professional growth.

Best Wishes,
Kamal Karmakar
CEO,

CitiXsys launches new websites- Corporate and Partner Portal

A completely redesigned and enhanced website is now available at www.citixsys.com (Corporate website) and www.partners.citixsys.com (for CitiXsys Partners). With a totally fresh appearance, the two new web sites contain more product/service oriented information while also being visually appealing. The two websites have also undergone significant improvement in the areas of content, navigation and design.

Notable content changes include the addition of a Business One Solution Set providing solutions that address business scenarios like; Retail Management, Warehouse Management, Inter/Intra Company Financial Management and Premium SAP Business One. These deployment scenarios have been designed keeping in mind the company's micro-vertical focus, and its in-depth expertise in providing solutions across the SAP Business One landscape. Other enhanced features include product screenshots, solution configurator, customer engagements, electronic brochures and enhanced search capabilities.

Inventory Pro from CitiXsys is designed for customers with light transactional inventory volumes that deal with multiple items. Inventory Pro enhances the SAP Business One basic inventory features to make managing inventory easier and more efficient, and is also tightly integrated with SAP Business One Sales Order entry. It is ideal for companies that manage light transactional inventory volumes but maintain and stock a large number of inventory items or companies that do not need the sophistication of an advanced warehouse management and distribution system but need the efficiency of managing inventory within multiple bin locations.

From now until March 31, 2008, purchase Inventory Pro for $1,000 plus maintenance on list price (MSRP is $5,500). There is no partner margin on this sale. *This offer is valid only in North America. Read more NOW!
